LEARN ABOUT MUSIC & DANCE CULTURES FROM AROUND THE WORLD

Join us for The UCLA Herb Alpert School of Music World Music Summer Intensive, a unique program designed for high school students age 14-18. Participants will explore the music and dance cultures of the Philippines, Java, Bali, Thailand, Korea, China, India, Africa, Latin America, and Persia. Expand your horizon by experiencing unfamiliar cultures from around the world and learn how to appreciate the diversity of global performing arts and their meanings in cultural context.

- Learn from top faculty in UCLA's globally renowned Department of Ethnomusicology and from master performers from each culture.
- Participate in interactive classes featuring audio-visual examples, hands-on music and dance workshops, group activities, and final performances.
