About the Program

In 2026, we commemorate a decade since the passing of King Rama IX, His Majesty King Bhumibol Adulyadej, and one year since the passing of Her Majesty Queen Sirikit, the beloved Queen Mother. Hosted by the UCLA Music of Thailand Ensemble, this evening is a heartfelt tribute to the profound cultural legacy of the late King and Queen.

Local musicians and students enrich the celebration with their performances, offering a diverse and inclusive program that highlights the community's vital role in honoring the King and Queen. Their participation reflects a shared commitment to preserving their legacy and ensures that supporters feel valued in this meaningful musical endeavor.

The program will commence with a short documentary film dedicated to the late King, showcasing his remarkable contributions to music and music education in Thailand. After a brief intermission, a jazz ensemble will perform selected pieces, bringing the King's compositions to a vibrant, memorable life.

Attire:
Guests and performers are kindly requested to wear concert black attire for this significant evening.
